Introduction

All Manitoba court decisions are published on CanLII, usually within 24 hours of being distributed. They can be downloaded as a pdf and then printed or emailed. This guide will explain how to set up an alert using Outlook or Google calendar to remind you, and then demonstrate how to retrieve and distribute the decisions.

Calendar Alerts

Outlook Calendar

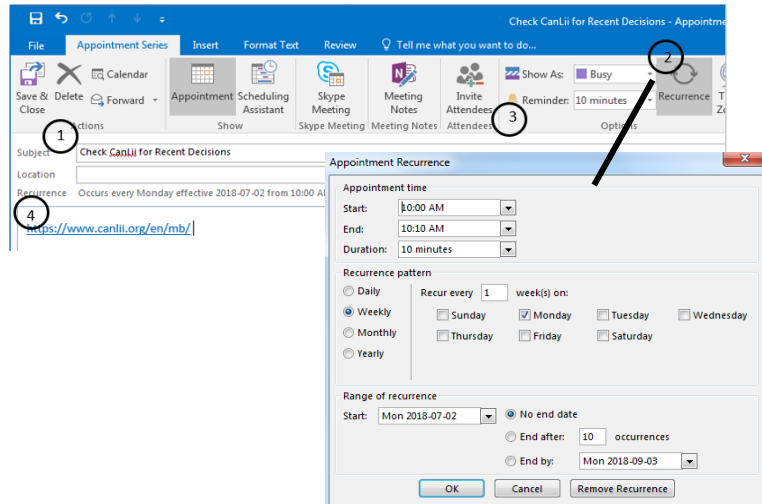

Set up a reminder through your Outlook calendar. You can customize when you want to receive notifications, how often and for how long.

To create a reminder, select New Appointment at the top left hand corner of your calendar.

Fill in the:

1. Subject (Title) of your alert
2. Recurrence
3. Set reminder time for desktop notification (how long in advance would you like the notification?)
4.  Optional: Create a description. example: CanLII URL
- 5.

After you have created your alert this is what your calendar will look like;

Google Calendar

Set up a reminder through Google calendar. You can customize when you want to receive notifications, how often and for how long.

To create a reminder, select  on the bottom right hand corner of your calendar.

Fill in the

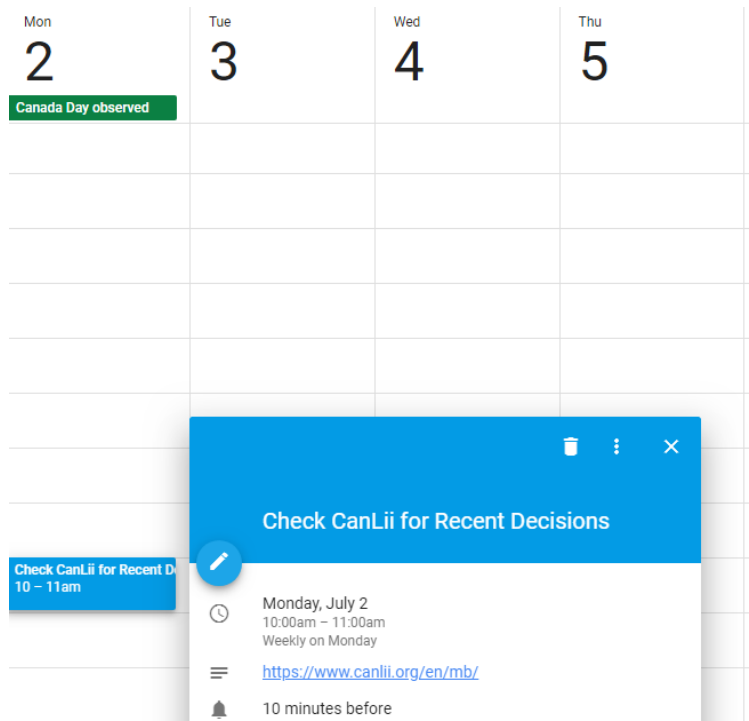

1. Title of your Alert
2. Frequency of Alert
3. Set timer for desktop notification (how long in advance would you like the notification?)
4.  Optional: Create a description. example: CanLII URL

Don't forget to save!

The screenshot shows the Google Calendar event creation interface. It includes a title field (1) with the text "Check CanLii for Recent Decisions" and a "SAVE" button. Below the title is a date and time selector (2) showing "Jun 11, 2018 10:00am to 11:00am" and a "Weekly on Monday" frequency. The "EVENT DETAILS" section includes fields for "Add location", "Add conferencing", and "Notification" (3) set to "10 minutes". There is also an "ADD NOTIFICATION" section with a "Busy" status and "Default visibility" options. At the bottom, there is a description field (4) containing the URL "https://www.canlii.org/en/mb/". On the right side, there is a "GUESTS" section with options to "Add guests" and "Guests can:" with checkboxes for "Modify event", "Invite others", and "See guest list".

After you have created your alert, this is what your calendar will look like;

How to find recent decisions on CanLII

<https://www.canlii.org/en/>

1. From the homepage, select Manitoba (or jurisdiction of your choice)

The screenshot shows the CanLII homepage. At the top right, there are language options for 'Français' and 'English'. Below the header is a search bar with three input fields: 'Document text', 'Case name, document title, file number, author or citation', and 'Noteup: cited case names, legislation titles, citations or dockets'. A search button with a magnifying glass icon is to the right. Below the search bar is a section titled 'Primary law' with a grid of links for various Canadian jurisdictions. The link for 'Manitoba' is circled in red.

2. Select your court (for this guide we will look at Court of Appeal)

The screenshot shows the CanLII website for Manitoba. The header includes 'Home > Manitoba' and language options. On the left is a sidebar with 'Databases' and a list of jurisdictions, with 'Manitoba' selected. The main content area is titled 'Manitoba' and contains search fields. Below the search fields is a 'Legislation' section with a link to 'Statutes and Regulations'. The 'Courts' section is circled in red and contains a table of courts. Below that is a 'Boards and Tribunals' section with another table.

RSS Feeds with Google Chrome

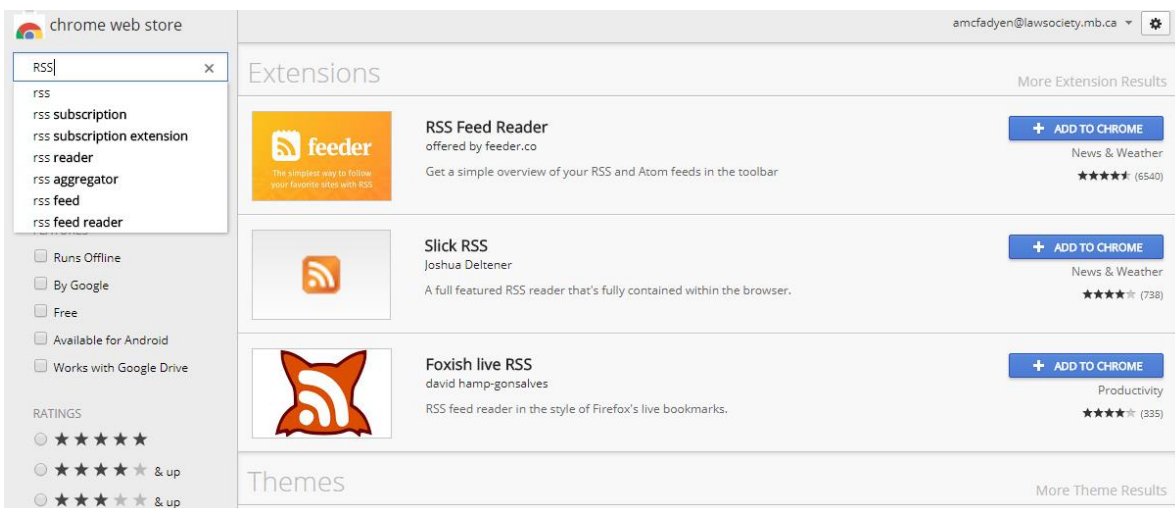

In order to set up an RSS feed through your Google Chrome browser, you must first install an RSS Feed extension.

If you don't already have an extension in your browser, here's how to get one

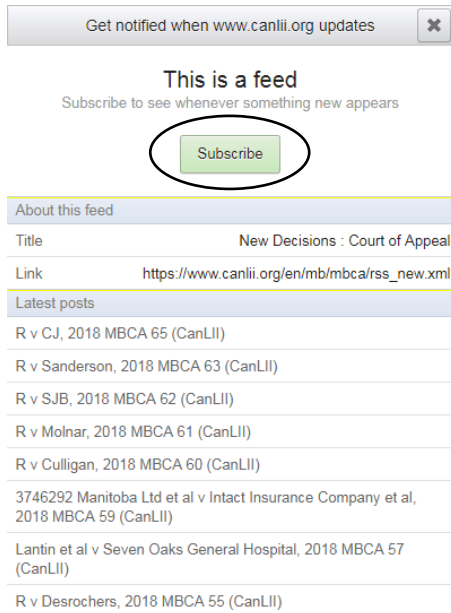

1. Go to <https://chrome.google.com/webstore/category/extensions>

2. Search for "RSS"

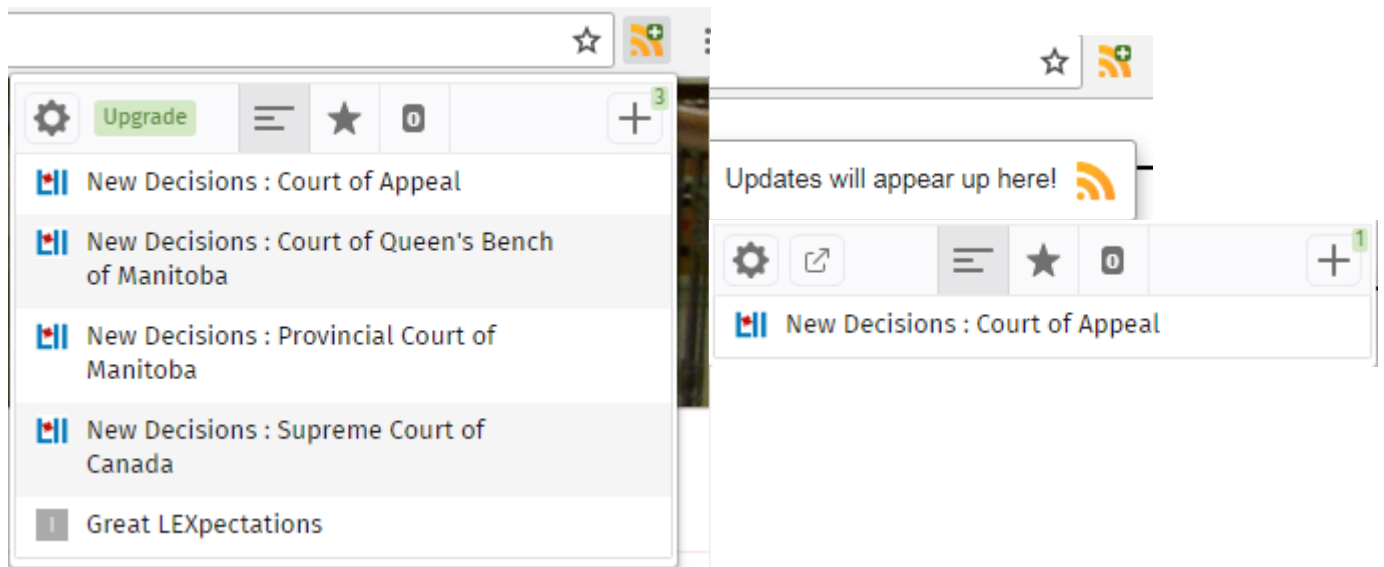

6. Select Subscribe and you've successfully added a feed to your reader!

7. Repeat above steps for other courts and jurisdictions.

When you have added all the feeds you would like to receive updates for, this is what your reader will look like.

The reader will update when new content has been added to the feeds you've selected. Simply click on the feed you would like to view and it will direct you from there.

Reminder: you can add feeds from your favourite news channel, blogs, websites and much more.

For example: to view new posts on our library blog Great LEXpectations

1. Go to lawlibrary.ca
2. Select “Great LEXpectations RSS Feed”
3. Receive updates about what is new in the library!

(or subscribe via e-mail.)

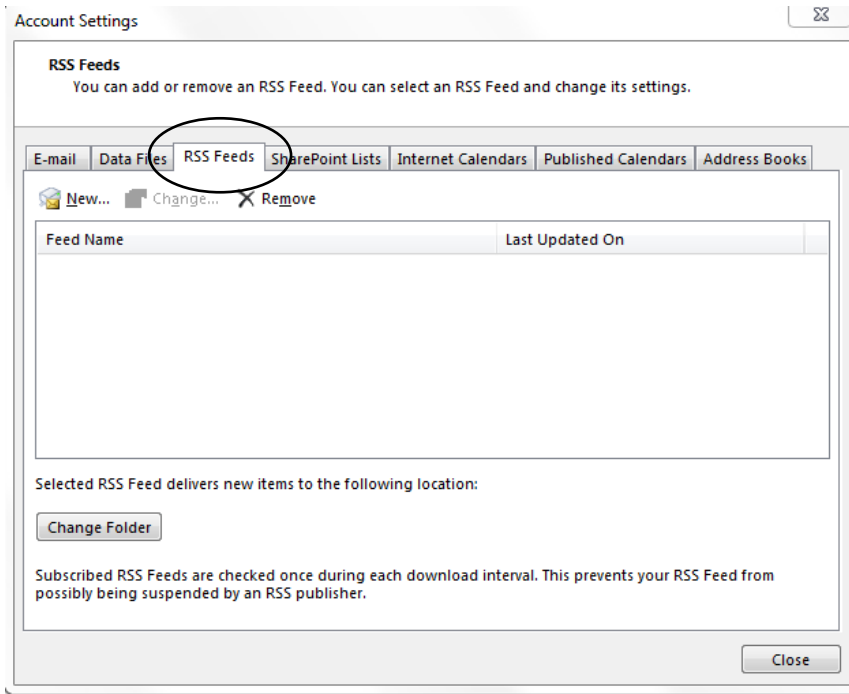

RSS Feeds through Outlook

Set up an RSS feed through your outlook account.

1. Select File at the top right hand corner
2. Select Account settings

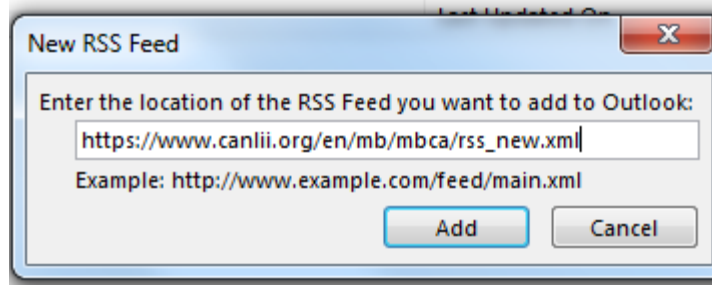

3. Select RSS Feeds

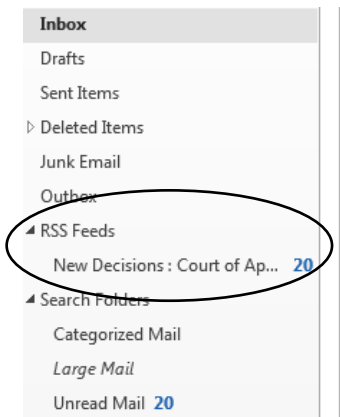

4. To add new feed, select new, and add the URL from the feed

https://www.canlii.org/en/mb/mbca/rss_new.xml

5. From there you can change the feed name, folder, etc.

This is what your side bar will look like, with updated folders for your feeds

If you have any further questions or need assistance with any of the information provided, do not hesitate to contact staff at the library and we'll be happy to help.
