

What do you need to know about the Children's Special Allowance Settlement?

The Children's Special Allowance (CSA) Settlement is a payment from the Manitoba government due to its improper use of federal benefits intended to support children in Child and Family Services (CFS).

This means that:

- If you were under the care of a provincial CFS agency between January 1, 2005, and March 31, 2019, you may be eligible to claim money from the settlement.
- Both Indigenous and non-Indigenous individuals can apply for the settlement.

Key dates:

- January 6, 2025: Claim Registration Period opened.
- January 6, 2027: 2-year Claim Registration Period closes.

Steps to Submit a Claim

1. Fill out the Claim Registration Form: Give all required information about yourself and your time in care (or the Claimant you are representing).
2. Complete one Claim Registration Form for each person who is a current or former Child-in-Care.
3. Attach required documents: Include your government-issued ID and any other required documents.
4. Choose your preferred payment method: Decide how you want to receive your potential payment
5. Submit your form: Make sure to submit your form by the January 5, 2027, deadline.
